Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) Secretary Maria Antonia Yulo-Loyzaga cited cumulative impact assessment of reclamation activities along Manila Bay that "any physical change in the configuration of the embayment would, in fact, change the way the water and other pollutants behave in the area."

Speaking before a Senate panel on public works, Yulo-Loyzaga said "In general, reclamation projects will slow down the flow of water and will change the circulation and retention of pollutants and organic materials that are already in the bay. This does not include yet what will be coming from the inland. So what we are doing now is combining what is coming from the inland under different bodies of water and what is coming from the ocean itself, from the bay itself."

To recall, some Senators blamed the ongoing

Visayas Governors, Cebu officials assures full support to PBBM as FL Liza emotionally accepts manifestos

At least nine Governors in the Visayas and various Cebu officials expressed its full support to the administration of President Ferdinand Marcos Jr. as First Lady Marie Louise "Liza" Marcos was overwhelmed and emotional when she accepted it.

Cebu Governor Gwendolyn Garcia invited the Visayas Governors and FL Marcos as special guest in the opening salvo of the month-long celebration of the 445th founding anniversary of the Province of Cebu.

"I wish my husband was here to feel the love and support that you gave him. I know I did and that's why it is important... I'm never going to forget this day for as long as I live," FL Marcos said.

"Today, what you did, I mean the showing of unity, it's like its really so touching and you know he's (Bongbong) not perfect but my husband is really trying. Sometimes I feel bad when people see all the negative and not the positive. It's not easy what he is doing but unity has a lot to do with it. Like in Cebu, in fairness to

Reclamation Projects to slow down water flow

Reclamation projects in the bay for the flooding in Metro Manila.

There are so many proposed reclamation projects all over the country.

Let us hope that government both national and local consider the implications of reclamation projects.

In Cebu alone, there are six to eight proposal reclamation projects.

Please plan out for the future.

PAGCOR issued licenses to more than 40 online gaming operators, on top of the 40 licenses it issued to Philippine Offshore gaming operators (POGO) that were rebranded as Internet Gaming Licensees (IGL).

The minimum bet for the number games shall not be less than P5.

The operators must pay an application fee of P200,000 for a two-year gaming license and P200,000 in cash deposit per gaming venue.

PAGCOR will receive 15 percent of the gross gaming revenue for live-streamed games and an initial 35 percent share for random number generator (RNG)-based games, from July to December 2024.

Share rates for RNG-based games will go down to 30 percent by January 2025.

But critics insisted that "PAGCOR should allow gaming only in integrated resort casinos and hotels catering mainly to foreign tourists. But they should spare the internet from excessive gaming because a lot of young Filipinos, especially children, are on the internet.

Gaming advertisements in mass media and social media should be regulated.

Bohol Guv, 30 others back to work

The Office of the Ombudsman has ordered Bohol Governor Erico Aristotle Aumentado and 30 other officials to return to work as their six-month suspension order was lifted. The suspension stemmed over the construction of a controversial resort at the Chocolate Hills.

Aumentado confirmed to media that he was reinstated and assumed back on 5 August.

The reinstatement order dated 31 July 2024, was signed by Ombudsman Samuel Martires.

He added that he will still wait for guidance from the Department of the Interior and Local Government, but said that based on the Ombudsman's order, a digital copy of which was sent to him, his reinstatement date is 31 July 2024.

Aside from Aumentado, ordered reinstated were James Diolan, Ian Bernadez, Emmanuel Jumawid, Maria Fe Jala, Flaviano Pacatang, Rolando Pataca, Gerardo Salces, Eugene Cabrera, Ma. Victoria Abrera, Marlou Salazar, Jesus Zamora Jr., Cecilia Tesio, Nelito Gallogo, Querino Aparicio, Gregorio Digamon, Perfecto Buro, Antonino Jumawid, Elizabeth Pace, Eugenio Ibarra, Dionisio Neil Balite, Michael Doria, Simplicio Maestrado Jr., Norman Palacio, Ranulfo, Malignat, Angel Enriquez, John Titus Vistal, Edilberto Paradela, Paquito Melicor Jr., and Gilbert

Gonzales.

Not in the list were Sagbayan Mayor Ricardo Suarez and Carmen Mayor Ricardo Francisco Toribio, whom did not file a motion for reconsideration.

"I will review what had been implemented, as well as the ongoing projects because I was away for two months," Aumentado said.

The establishment of Captain's Peak Garden and Resort built alongside the Unesco-declared Global Geopark in the town of Sagbayan. ## Cebu City needs P8.2-B for Comprehensive Drainage Master Plan

The 20 year old Cebu City comprehensive Drainage Master Plan has been implemented but only 20 percent of this has been done.

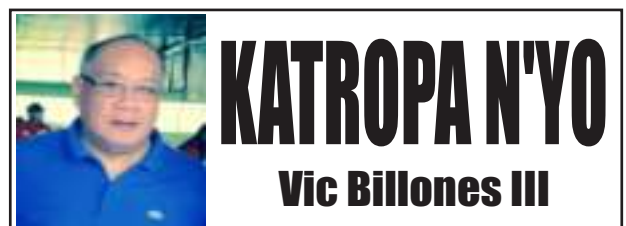

This as Cebu City acting Mayor Raymond Alvin Garcia told DAILY TRIBUNE "We are already doing a lot of things... it's not an overnight solution.

The volume of rain has tripled but our existing drainage system is still in the 90's, many years back." "We are looking at a master plan...master drainage plan for the City of Cebu that will cost billions," he cited.

The acting mayor said the master drainage plan, deemed by many as long overdue, includes building gabion dams or mini dams in upland areas to control water flow.

These structures aim to lower flooding risk by capturing excess rainwater and releasing it slowly, preventing it from overwhelming the current drainage systems. In 2004, Cebu City devised a comprehensive Drainage Master Plan. (By RICO MIRASOL OSMENA)

Tsk Tsk Tsk! Ang pagbibigay ng UAE ng tulong para sa mga biktima ng Bagyong Carina ay kumakatawan sa isang mahalagang gawa ng kabaitan at suporta para sa mga naapektuhan ng mga natural na kalamidad. Ipinakikita nito kung paano maaaring magsama-sama ang mga bansa sa panahon ng krisis upang magbigay ng kaluwagan at tulong, sa huli ay tumutulong sa mga pagsisikap sa pagbawi sa mga lugar na lubhang naapektuhan tulad ng Bulacan.

Ang pakikilahok ng DSWD ay tumitiyak na ang tulong ay mahusay na naipamahagi sa mga higit na nangangailangan.

BANSANG UAE MABAIT SA MGA BULAKENYO

Pagrekut ng mga Mag-aaral sa Mga Institusyong Pang- edukasyon

Ang isyu ng radicalization at recruitment ng mga mag-aaral sa mga lokal na komunistang teroristang grupo sa loob ng mga institusyong pang-edukasyon sa Pilipinas, ay isang masalimuot na problema na nakakuha ng makabuluhang atensyon mula sa mga mambabatas, partikular na sa nasabing Komite na pinangunahan ni Senator Dela Rosa.

Ito ay kadalasang iniuugnay sa kumbinasyon ng mga socio-economic factors, ideolohikal na indoktrinasyon, at mga kahinaang likas sa kabataang naghahanap ng pagkakakilanlan at layunin.

Ang mga institusyong pang-edukasyon, na tradisyonal na nakikita bilang mga baluarte ng pag-aaral at kritikal na pag-iisip, sa kasamaang-palad ay naging mga arena kung saan maaaring umunlad ang mga ekstremistang ideolohiya, kadalasang sinasamantalang ang idealismo at pagnanais ng mga estudyante para sa katarungang panlipunan.

Ang mga pagdinig ng komite ay naglalayong tugunan ang mga alalahaning ito sa pamamagitan ng pagsusuri sa mga mekanismo kung saan nangyayari ang pangangalap, kabilang ang papel ng mga organisasyon ng mag-aaral na maaaring hindi sinasadyang magsilbing mga daanan para sa radikal na pag-iisip. Higit pa rito, may mga panawagan para sa pinahusay na mga hakbang sa seguridad sa loob ng mga kampus, gayundin ang mga repormang pang-edukasyon na nagtataguyod ng kritikal na pag-iisip at katataganan laban sa mga ekstremistang salaysay.

Tsk! Tsk! Tsk! Ang hamon ay nakasalalay hindi lamang sa pagkontra sa mga pagsusumikap sa pangangalap na ito, kundi sa pagpapaulnad ng isang kapaligiran kung saan ang mga mag-aaral ay maaaring makisali sa magkakaibang mga pananaw nang walang takot sa pamimilito pagmamaniplula.

MICP Dist. Coll. Talusan, kudos! CCBI at PRBCB Pinarangalan at BOC Achieves Highest Audit Evaluation!

Tutok Aduana ni Reynante Salgado

Congratulations sa masipag at magaling na District Collector Carmelita Talusan dahil naging successful ang kaniyang District Collector's Cup" Shootfest na ginanap noong nakraang Linggo sa Bucor firing Range, Muntinlupa city.

Ang District Collector's Cup", District Collector's Cup" Shootfest, a Level 1 PPSA Sanctioned Match 6 Stages ay pagpapakita bilang suporta sa sports at personnel development program ni Bureau of Customs Commissioner Bienvenido Y. Rubio na matagumpay na naisagawa ng Manila International Container Port sa pamumuno ni District Collector Carmelita M. Talusan.

Ang kaganapang ito ay naglalayong hindi lamang upang matuto ng mga kasanayan ngunit magtanim ng mga halaga ng disiplina, determinasyon sa mga shooters.

Si BOC Commissioner Rubio, kasama si Senator Ronald "Bato" Dela Rosa, mismong isang competitive shooter ang nanguna sa ceremonial shoot kasama ang nangungunang Philippine team shooting champions na sina Edcel Gino, Kobe Ligon, Mr. Edrick Chan, Leo Afandi, Jun Catalan, Jerome Morales, at Collector Mimel Talusan na nagbahagi ng kanilang mga kasanayan at nagpakita ng kanilang mga taon ng karanasan, na hinihikayat ang MICP shooters sa disiplina sa sports shooting at nagsusumikap para sa kahusayan sa marksmanship.

Ang Bureau of Customs ay mga tagapagpatupad din ng batas na nangunguna sa ating proteksyon sa hangganan at pagkolekta ng revenue. Sinabi sa pahayag ni Comm. Rubio "At the heart of this shootfest is the notion of a good sportsmanship and camaraderie." gaya ng sinabi ng Commissioner sa mga katangian na tumutukoy sa isang tunay na sportsman.

Ang "MICP District Collector's Cup" ay minarkahan ang isang makabuluhang sandali para sa mga kalalakhian at kababaihan ng Port, dahil ang mga shooters ay nakatanggap ng mismong inspirasyon mula sa mga icon na nag-ukit ng kanilang mga pangalan sa shooting sports history sa bansa. "We learn proper discipline in sports and we gain wisdom in both losing and winning in competitions," sabi ni District Collector Talusan. Si Collector Talusan ay isang atleta at nakikipagkumpitensya rin sa buong mundo sa kanyang sariling larangan ng sports shooting.

Ang MICP District Collector's Cup ay nilahukan ng halos 180 shooters na binubuo ng mga nangungunang Philippine shooters, iba't ibang gun club sa buong bansa at iba't ibang opisina at Ports ng BOC, na kinabibilangan ng Customs Intelligence and Investigation Services, Enforcement and Security Service, X-ray Inspection Project, Ports ng Davao, Subic, NAIA, La Union, Clark, Manila, Legazpi, at Zamboanga. Kudos sa lahat at Congratulations Dist. Coll. Mimel!

Sa isang mahalagang kaganapan na ginanap noong Agosto 2, 2024, pinarangalan ang Chamber of Customs Brokers Inc. at ang Professional Regulatory Board para sa Customs Brokers bilang runner-up para sa Most Outstanding Accredited Integrated Professional Organization (AIPO) at Professional Regulatory Board of the Year 2024. Ang prestihiyosong pagkilalang ito, na iginawad ng Professional Regulation Commission (PRC), ay ipinagdiriwang ang mga kahanga-hangang tagumpay at kontribusyon ng mga propesyonal na organisasyon sa kani-kanilang larangan.

Ang seremonya, na nagsama-sama ng mga kilalang tao mula sa iba't ibang mga propesyonal na sektor, ay nakita ang CCBI na pinuri para sa kanyang kapuri-puring dedikasyon sa pagsulong ng customs brokerage profession. Nakahalubilo ang CCBI National President Doc. Anthony Cristobal, na, kasama ng iba pang mga kilalang miyembro ng organisasyon, ay tinanggap ang parangal sa ngalan ng CCBI. Kasama sa mga dumalo mula sa CCBI ang: CCBI President Doc. Anthony Cristobal, PRBCB Chair Hon. Sam Bautista, PRBCB Member Albert Cruz, Nenette Dagondon, Atty. Julius Basas, Jill Tolentino, National Past President Girlie Abdelatif, 2024 Outstanding Professional of the Year Award Joel Deligero, Atty. Norbert Castillo, Dennis Calica, Refy Gorre, Secretary CCBI Wilfredo Caingcoy, Mel Borja, Webmaster Rod Villanueva, at Former Customs Commissioner Alberto Lina. Binibigyang-diin ng pagkilalang ito ang malaking pekto na ginawa ng CCBI at ng Professional Regulatory Board para sa Customs Brokers sa kanilang industriya, na nagpapakita ng hindi natitinag na pangako sa kahusayan at propesyonal na pag-unlad. Ang parangal ay isang testamento sa kanilang pagsusumikap at dedikasyon sa pagtataas ng mga pamantayan ng propesyon ng customs brokerage. Congratulations po sa lahat!

BOC Achieves Highest Audit Evaluation for Two Consecutive Years

The Bureau of Customs (BOC) has once again demonstrated its unwavering commitment to financial transparency and accountability, achieving an unmodified opinion on its Financial Statements for the second consecutive year. This evaluation was issued by the Commission on Audit (COA), underscoring the BOC's adherence to the highest standards of financial reporting for the C.Y. 2023.

An unmodified opinion, the highest audit evaluation granted by the COA, signifies that the financial statements are prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSASs).

These consecutive recognitions by the COA not only highlight the BOC's consistent performance but also set a commendable benchmark for other government agencies. It reflects the agency's proactive measures in strengthening its financial systems, enhancing internal controls, and promoting a culture of transparency and accountability.

Commissioner Bienvenido Y. Rubio expressed his gratitude to the BOC-COA Auditors, recognizing their indispensable role in these achievements. "The BOC-COA Auditors have consistently been our partners in driving meaningful change. Their guidance and reminders have reinforced our responsibilities as public servants, emphasizing that we are accountable for public funds and resources," Rubio stated.

Looking ahead, the BOC is determined to sustain this level of excellence and continue its pursuit of operational and financial improvements. The agency will remain vigilant in its efforts to uphold the highest standards of financial reporting and accountability, ensuring that public funds and resources are managed with the utmost care and responsibility.

Outpouring support bolsters oil spill response in Cavite

Trce Martires City – The ongoing response to the recent oil spill affecting Cavite has received significant reinforcement through the generous donations from local government units, national agencies and private partners ensuring and sustaining the efficient and effective cleanup of the affected areas in Cavite.

On August 5, Cleanway Environmental Management Solutions Inc. has extended its support by donating 50 drums with covers, specifically designed to serve as containers for wastes contaminated with oil collected along the shorelines of Cavite during the cleanups of the Office of the Provincial Environment and Natural Resources Officer, DENR-Cavite, and the Philippine Coast Guard. # JESSA CHUN A MODEL MOTHER DEMANDS JUSTICE TO REUNITE HER SON

Jessa Chun's Fight: A Mother's Search for Justice and Integration Facts based on passionate and personal interview with true JESSA CHUN by true Station MANAGER Ma. Fe Nicodemus of Kakampipi Online live straming radio/tv program that can be watched live on Face Book and You Tube asking for justice for those concerned to be reunited with the long time denied to be with the child whom the Korean father took with them to their home in Korea without its mother's permission.

In the testimony of the real Jessa Chun, 37-year-old, resident of Bacoor Cavite, was involved in an offensive saga involving her Korean partner and their child. The story of her emotional and legal struggles reveals a complex web of challenges, betrayals, and a mother's unwavering love for her child.

A Love Turned Sour

Real Jessa Chun's relationship with her Korean partner began with promise. However, as they settled into their lives together in Korea, cracks began to appear. What started as a promising union quickly soured, leaving Chun in a precarious position. Cultural differences, along with his partner's increasingly abusive behavior, caused the relationship to fail. Despite her efforts to do so, the situation worsened, leading Chun to the painful decision to break up with her partner.

Separation is not only emotionally taxing but also logistically complicated. Because of her partner's nationality and Korean laws, Chun faces major obstacles in bringing her son back to the Philippines with her. Due to legal obstacles, she is powerless, and she has to leave her son behind, a decision that will haunt her. A Child at Risk

Back in the Philippines, Chun tries to rebuild his life. However, her concern for her son grew when she learned of the dire conditions her son was facing in Korea. Reports reached to her that her son had developed depression, a disturbing revelation that filled her with guilt and anxiety. More worryingly, she discovered that her ex-husband was physically abusing their young wife, compounding the trauma.

JESSA CHUN (left) being interviewed by Station Manager Ma. Fe Nicodemus of Kakampipi Online Talakayang Pinoy so that the person in charge will listen to his grievances and thus give attention and help to return his son who fled to Korea by his father.

Desperate to protect her son, Chun decides to return to the Philippines. She moved to her property in Masbate, hoping to create a safe and fun environment where her son could heal. His ex-husband, however, followed them to the Philippines. At first, they tried to do lived peacefully for the sake of their son, but the situation quickly worsened. The presence of the abusive father only exacerbated the child's trauma, making it clear that the arrangement was unsustainable. Legal and Personal Conflict

Acting on the advice of a doctor, it was decided that the boy should be separated from his father to facilitate recovery. Chun's ex-husband agreed, but only for a while. Just three days later, he arrived at Chun's new residence with barangay officials, accusing him of various offenses and filing many complaints against him. This relentless legal harassment added to Chun's growing stress and frustration.

In an attempt to protect her son, Chun decides to hide her son from his father. This decision, while made out of desperation and love, further complicated his situation. Despite his financial stability and business acumen as evidenced by his successful ventures, including a promising one mining partnership with another Korean businessman—his ex-husband continued to interfere in his life. He manipulated his relatives, offering them money and spreading false stories, turning some of them against him.

The mining business, which had the potential to secure a stable future for Chun and his son, became another battlefield. His ex-husband and his associates allegedly disrupted operations, using various tactics to sabotage the business. From hiring people to intimidate and threatening workers to destroy equipment, the attacks are relentless.

Even local officials, including a mayor's son, were implicated in the destruction of Chun's property. His properties in Masbate, which were supposed to be a refuge, became a place of conflict and loss. Resisting
