CEBU HOSTS ASEAN CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT INITIATIVES AS IT WANT IT STRENGTHENED IN THE REGION

PORTWATCH Rico Osmeña

Finance and customs enforcement groups in the Association of the SouthEast Asian Nations(ASEAN) yesterday vowed to strengthen its regional cooperation and intensified coordination in implementing trade facilitation and customs law.

The Bureau of Customs(BOC) of the Port of Cebu hosted the 3-day conference attended by the Finance and Customs officials from Cambodia, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Myanmar, Vietnam, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Malaysia including Australian Border Force, Intellectual Property Office of the Philippines (POPHIL) and Japan Ministry of Finance. Cebu Customs District Collector Atty. Charlito Mendoza emphasized that the cooperation goes beyond both ways-- on one hand, by sharing with the ASEAN neighbors each nation's customs best practices and on the other hand,by helping to address areas needed support and assistance."

"Our Unity is our strongest assault and defines against any threat new or old--- to customs compliance and enforcement," he said during the opening ceremonies. Discussed were different concerns but highlighted is the regional campaign against illegal drugs.

This is the first time Cebu to host this ASEAN Customs Enforcement and Compliance Working Group (CECWG) and this was its 27th conference as it is being rotated in the nine-member ASEAN countries on an annual basis.

Mendoza believes that guided by the relevant international and regional programs, the CECWG meeting is directed to the adoption and implementation of measures of customs enforcement and promoting of voluntary compliance with the view to safeguard customs revenues and contribute to trade and investment.

PRC DONATES FACE MASKS TO BOC!
IN support to the Bureau of Customs' mandate on border protection, trade facilitation and revenue collection, the Bureau last, February 24, 2020 received 25,000 pieces of face masks donated by the Philippine Red Cross (PRC) led by PRC Chairman and CEO Senator Richard J. Gordon at the Philippine Red Cross headquarters at Mandaluyong city.

The face masks were received by the Commissioner Rey Leonardo B. Guerrero together with Public Information and Assistance Division Chief Bienvenido Datuin Jr. and General Services Division Chief Raquel De Jesus.

The donation was done amid the Coronavirus Disease-2019 (COVID-19) scare which has produced disruption in the global supply of face masks, gowns, gloves and other protective gear. Sen. Gordon said that the donation of 25,000 pieces of face masks is in line with his pronouncement that government front-liners should be given priority in the distribution of face masks and other protective gear because they come directly in contact with infected persons or possible carriers of the disease.

"We have to provide our front-liners with face masks and other protective gear. Our doctors, nurses, and other hospital personnel come in close contact with people infected with the novel coronavirus and patients under investigation. Likewise, the personnel of agencies like the Bureau of Immigration [BI], Bureau of Customs [BOC], airports and seaports and the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) also interact daily with inbound travellers, some of whom may be carriers of the disease. We should protect our front-liners and help prevent local transmission of COVID-19."

Commissioner Guerrero was very thankful for the donation and acknowledged the risks that BOC personnel face in the performance of their duty, but admitted his surprise that the PRC included the BOC among the beneficiaries of the face masks. "We did not expect to be included in the list of agencies that will be given face masks. But we are very, very grateful. We give our whole-hearted thanks to the noble cause of PRC and of course, to Sen. Gordon."

The Department of Health(DOH) and Bureau of Quarantine(BOQ) in Central Visayas were able to identify on where hotels the 26 South Koreans, who arrived from Daegu City, Northern Gyeonsang province on February 25, 2020. DOH-7 Regional Director Dr. Jaime Bernadas told media that :most of the 26 are staying in hotels, 12 in Lapu-Lapu City and 14 in Cebu City.."

"If they are found out to be symptomatic, then they will be classified as Persons Under Investigation(PUIs) and should be admitted to hospitals," he added

"They (26 Koreans) were contacted already and were advised to stay in their respective accommodations and will be subjected for close monitoring," Dr. Terence Bermejo, the chief of the BOQ. This as Cebu Governor Gwendolyn Garcia yesterday signed Executive Order No. 5-A extending the travel ban from Daegu City.

She added that same quarantine protocols imposed on travellers from China will be done on Daegu City passengers. Daegu City is the epicenter of the Coronavirus(COVID!) outbreak in South Korea and there are 22 direct flights weekly from Cebu to Daegu.

The Bureau of Immigration recorded that in 2019 alone there were 860,087 arriving Koreans at the Mactan Cebu International Airport(MCIA) with 859,643 departing from Mactan.

The Inter-Agency Task Force on Emerging Infectious Diseases(IATF-EID) agreed that all travelers coming from North Gyeonsang province will undergo mandatory 14-day quarantine.

Hotel operators especially where the 26 Koreans checked in were already advised on the medical protocol. Bernadas clarified that the 26 were categorized as Persons Under Monitoring(PUMs) not PUIs.

ARTA Chief Lauds BOC for Efforts Against Red-tape!
The Bureau of Customs (BOC) was recognized by the Anti-Red Tape Authority (ARTA) Director-General Jeremiah B. Belgica during his visit to the BOC yesterday, February 26, 2020, for its efforts to simplify frontline processes, automate systems and implement a zero-contact policy in compliance with ARTA's thrust to reduce red tape and expedite government processes.

The ARTA chief also praised the Bureau for being one of the first agencies to comply with ARTA's requirement to produce a citizen's charter handbook. "You are a beacon of light to the BOC" stated Belgica to Commissioner Rey Leonardo B. Guerrero as he delivered his message thanking the BOC for the accommodation extended to the ARTA delegation.

DG Belgica further stressed the importance of inter-agency cooperation in achieving true change. # SCS SA PANDI, BULACAN, MAY BAGONG KAALYADO HANGAD NA MAGING URBANISADONG LUNGSOD ANG SJDM

KATROPA N'YO Vic Billones III

Nais nating ipakilala sa madla ang bagong Puno ng Federation of Senior Citizens Association of the Philippines (FSCAP), Pandi Chapter, at inalang natin kung ano ang kanyang magagawa bilang Pangulo, sa kapakanan ng mga Senior Citizens (SCs.) Siya si Felimon Roque, bagong Pangulo ng FSCAP, taga-Brgy Cupang, Pandi. Ayon sa kanya: "plano ko unang-una proteksiyunan ang lahat ng mga benepisyo at karapatan na dapat mapunta at tanggapin ng ating mga Senior Citizens. Nais ko rin na lalong mabuklod-buklod at mapaglapit-lapit ang lahat ng SCs sa aming bayan ng Pandi.

Sa piling ko hindi naman ako pababayaang ni Mayor Rico. Nang ma-'elect' ako ay nakipag-usap ako sa kanya. Unang-una ng hindi naman iba sa akin iyan, pamangkin ko iyan, kaya malakas ang loob ko na kausapin siya. Sana sa panahon ng aking panunungkulan eh susuportahan niya ako sa anumang balakin. Nanga-'adjust' pa ako pero iyun na yun na nakatanim sa aking isip na nais na ilahad sa aming samahan na FSCAP."

OPINYON LANG! Rey Endaya Domingo

MISTULANG 'ghost town' na ang bakuran ng Port of Manila (POM), collection district ng Bureau of Customs (BOC). Ipinatupad na kasi ang "No Contact Policy" simula pa noong nakaraang Lunes, February 17 ng taon.

Hindi na pinapasok ang waterfront stakeholders na may mga regular transaksyon sa naturang pantalan. Maging ang 'official business' para sa ibang mga bisita ay apektado na rin. "Naka-lockdown kasi ang POM," himutok ng isang broker.

Pero hindi raw dahil sa laganap na COVID-19 o Coronavirus Disease. Naglagay ang Customs authorities ng tinatawag na quarantine area para sa mga stakeholders. Hanggang doon lang sila mamalagi. Bawal ang lumabas at marami pang ipinagbabawal. Kasi, binawalan na rin sila na personal magfollow-up nang import entries sa Assessment groups para sa processing at releasing ng kani-kanilang shipments sa puerto.

Sinasabing labis na "nagluluksa" ang hanay ng mga

HUSTISYA PARA KAY ATTY DALANGIN

DAPAT na kumilos kaagad ang Duterte administration para resolbahin ang pagpatay sa mga nasa legal profession sa bansa tulad ng kahilingan ng Commission on Human Rights (CHR) makaraan na isa na namang abogado sa Nueva Ecija ang pinatay sa harap ng kanyang kliyente noong nakaraang linggo.

Ang pagpatay kay Atty. Bayani Dalangin at assassinations sa iba pang nasa legal practice ay dapat bigyan ng seryosong atensyon ng mga law enforcement officials.

Sinabi po nitong si Ayon kay CHR spokesperson, Atty. Jacqueline de Guia na ang naturang grave threats at pang-aatake sa mga abogado ay nakakaapekto sa mga nasa justice sector na makapagbigay ng epektibong legal representation at hadlang para sa kanila na magawa ang kanilang propesyon.

Kung atin po na magugunita na ilang araw bago ang pagkakapatay kay Dalangin (si Dalangin po bago naging abogado ay isang Sarhento ng Philippine Army) ay nagisa ang kasalukuyang gobyerno mula sa human rights organizations dahil sa umano'y pagpapabayaang at umiiral na culture of impunity.

At nito ngang February 19 ay mapatay si Bureau of Corrections (BuCor) legal division chief at abogado si Frederic Anthony Santos sa Muntinlupa City. Nakikiramay po ang kolum na ito sa pamilya Dalangin na malapit din nating kaibigan noong nag-aaral kami sa kolehiyo sa Cabanatuan City.

TALAGANG kakaiba itong si Manila Mayor Isko Moreno basta beautification ang pag-uusapan masasabi natin siya na ang number 1 sa buong bansa. Tulad po ngayon may hamon si Yorme na siya ay magbibigay ng P1-M sa bawat barangays sa Maynila na tatanghalin bilang "cleanest and greenest" mula sa mga distrito.

Sinabi nitong si Yorme Isko na ang technical working group ang magba-validate sa mga shortlisted barangays, na binubuo ng mga kinatawan mula sa Metropolitan Manila Development Authority, departments ng environment, interior and local government, at Science and Technology.

Binigyan-diin ni Yorme na ang cash prize ay dapat gamitin ng mga mananalohang para sa ikabubuti at ikagaganda pa ng kanilang mga barangays partikular na sa usapin ng ecological solid waste management at pagbuo ng clean and green projects. Narito po ang mga criteria na dapat sundin ng mga barangays gaya ng 30 points para sa segregation sa source at segregated collection at 20 points para sa material recovery facility. Kabilang din ang 20 points para sa greening programs na binubuo ng (vertical gardening, urban garden o urban agriculture), 15 points para sa barangay solid waste management committee at 15 points para sa barangay weekly clean up. Malalaman po natin kung sino ang mananalohang.

"Ang nais kong ipabatid sa aking mga kapwa Senior Citizens, anumang problema na mararanasan nila ay huwag silang mag-atubili na lumapit sa aming tanggapan at kami ay nakahanda na tulungan sa abot ng aming magagawa, na laging nakaalalay sa kanila para matugunan ang mga problemang dumarating sa kanila," pagtatapos ni G. Roque.

Tsk! Tsk! Tsk! Marami pong umaasa na mapasisigla pa ng labis ang buhay ng mga SCs, sa ilalim ng inyong panunungkulan. Mabuhay po kayo!

Nitong nakaraang araw ay nagsalita at nagpasalamat si Mayor Arthur Robes sa mga panauhin na dumalo sa "Community and Service-Oriented Policing System: Implementing Guidelines Lecture," ginanap sa Activity Center, Productivity Center, Barangay Sapang Palay Proper.

Ayon ay Mayor Robes na malaking bagay na matuturuan ng tama at ano ang dapat gawin sa lokal na pamahalaan. Binanggit pa niya na isang 'promising' na lugar ang San Jose Del Monte, dahil ito ay malapit sa kamaynilaan. Ika pa niya na noong nanalo siya sa Halalan taong 2016 ay pinatigil niya ang pagdaloy ng mga nagsisilipit mula sa kalakhang Maynila, dahil siya ay naniniwala na ang Lungsod ng San Jose ay hindi na Lumalaki, embes ito ay lumilit na. Dapat ika pa niya na ang makinabang ay ang mga 'extended family' na nasa naturang Lungsod.

Binanggit pa rin ng makisig na Punong bayan na sa Siyudad ay halo-halo na din ang mga nakatira dito. Bagamat ganyan ang sitwasyon, ay pinipilit nilang maging malakas na personero dahil sa umano'y hindi makatuwiran at maka-tao na hakbang ng ahensya.

Sa pangyayaring ito kasi, tuluyan nang namatay ang dating unti-unting "naghihinalong" hanapuhay ng brokers. Sa datos, aabot sa 12 libo ang kabuuang aktibong miyembro ng Licensed Customs Brokers mula sa iba't ibang asosasyon o samahan sa buong bansa.

Nakakalungkot na bukod sa kanilang (brokers) bilang, libu-libong pamilya ang inaasahan na magiging miserable ang buhay at magugutom kapag tuluyang winalis ang serbisyo ng mga personero sa mga pier at paliparan ng Adwana.

Ang maituturing bangungot na resulta nito, dagdag na malaking problema na naman ng ating gobyerno. Mabigat na pasanin, sa totoo lang. Harinaw'y 'wag naman. Subalit sana ay maintindian ng mga Big Boss sa itaas ang hindi katanggap-tanggap na nangyayari sa Customs-POM.

At habang sinusulat ng inyong lingkod ito, may ulat na tila 'ata nagdeklara na ng 'Martial Law' si Customs Commissioner Rey Leonardo "Jagger" Guerrero sa lugar. Sinasabing 2 Customs Police, guwardiya at driver ang nakatikim ng mga pananakit. Kabilang ang taga-diliber ng mga diyaro ang nasampolan.

Bagay na umiiral ang matinding takot at tensyon sa mga empleyado ng ahensya sa kasalukuyan. Natutoretang at poarang mga 'sinisilihan ang mga puwet sa takot' ang mga taga-POM. Tsk, tsk, tsk!

DAGDAG BENIPISYO SA SENIOR CITIZEN

MAGANDA itong panukalang isinusulong nitong si Sen. Leila de Lima ito po ay ang panukalang pagbibigay ng cash incentives sa mga senior citizen na aabot sa 80 at 90 taong gulang. Marami ang natutuwa sa panukalang ito.

Nabatid na nakaloob sa Senate Bill No. 1319 ni de Lima na ang mga aabot sa edad 80 ay dapat bigyan ng P10,000 na incentive. At bibigyan ng karagdagang P10,000 naman ang makukuha kapag sumapit naman sa edad na 90.

Sapagkat sa kasalukuyang batas na Republic Act 10868 o Centenarians Act of 2016 ay ang mga senior citizen na umaabot lamang sa 100 ay binibigyan ng P100,000. Aminado ang Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) na madalas ay hindi nakapagbibigay ng incentive na ito dahil hindi na umaabot sa edad 100 ang mga senior citizens sa bansa.

Sa rekord ng World Health Organization (WHO) noong 2018 ay nasa edad 69.3 ang average life expectancy ng mga Pinoy na mas mababa ng 3 taon sa global average na 72.

"Even more unfortunately, many, if not most, of our centenarians are already too old, sickly, and impaired to properly enjoy the blessings of the Centenarian Law," giit ni de Lima.

PINAGHAHANDAAN na po ng Pilipinas sa kauna-unahang pagkakataon ang hosting sa International Fleet Review (IFR) na kung saan ay magsasama-sama ang warships at navy delegates mula sa iba't-ibang panig ng mundo sa Manila. Bahagi ng Western Pacific Naval Symposium ang IFR na gaganapin dito sa Maynila mula May 19 hanggang 21.

Nabatid mula kay Philippine Navy Flag Officer-in-Command Rear Admiral Giovanni Carlo Bacordo, magsasagawa ng confidence-building activities ang mga kasaling bansa upang patunayan na kaya ng mga navies sa buong mundo na magtrabaho ng magkasama para sa iisang layunin ng hindi nagkakaroon ng tensyon. Nakalalang makiisa sa aktibidad na ito ang mga world superpowers sa diplomatic event na dadaluhan ng 24 na bansa kabilang na ang US, China, at Russia. Kinumpirma na ng Russia, US, Vietnam at Thailand, na magpapadala ang mga ito ng sari-sarili nilang mga barko.

PAGGAMIT NG PLASTIC HIHIPITAN

HUMANDA na po ang lahat ng tanggapan ng gobyerno sa bubuuing panuntunan o ang specific guidelines para sa pagpapatupad ng plastic ban. Ito ay matapos na ipahayag ng Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) na mapaganda pa ang San Jose del Monte. Wika pa niya na masuwerte na may taong nais na bigyan ng karunungan at kaalaman ang mga barangay, dahil nga sa laki ng populasyon nito. "We are looking forward later on, after the Rising City' maging 'highly urbanized City' ang San Jose Del Monte, dahil iyan ang aming pangarap," dagdag na wika pa ni Robes. Tsk! Tsk! Tsk! Mabuhay ang Lungsod ng San Jose Del Monte.

Ang kuwento ng source, dinibdiban umano ang dalawang pulis na sina alyas "Cabrera" at "Gunda" at pinag-jogging hanggang sa mapagatod at bumigay ang kanilang katawan dahil hindi kinaya ang sobrang pagod.

Samantalang kinuwelyuhan at kinaladkad papasok sa opisina ni Jagger ang guwardiya nang hindi ito sumunod sa ipinag-uutos sa kanya. Pero may malalim na dahilan pala ang mga ito. Ang kuwento pa ng Customs insider, umano'y ginawa ang nasabing istilong batas-militar at lockdown sa POM, upang mailihim sa publiko ang kontrobersyal na isyu laban sa isang alyas "Atty. Jumamil" na naglulungga umano sa tanggapan ng OCOM o Office Of The Commissioner.

Si Jumamil ay sinasabing pinasibak na ni Pangulong Digong kaugnay ng kasong korapsyon na kinasasangkutan sa Customs, may ilang buwan na ang nakaraan noong 2019.

Paro nagiging malaking palaisipan sa mga taga-Adwana at waterfront stakeholders ang patuloy na pananatili ni Jumamil sa opisina ng komisyoner. Bakit nga ba?

Matatandaang sinasabing nabisto ang umano'y pangongolekta ng iligal na tara ni Jumamil sa mga stakeholders. At nakarating ang pinagpiyestahang balitang ito kay Pangulong Digong. Natukoy nga si Jumamil na guilty sa ibinabatong katiwalian kaya siya nakatikim ng 'kamay na bakal' ng ating pangulo. Mimo! 'Yun na!

Hanggang dito na lamang muna tayo, dear readers. May update, pramis! Abangan!

aprubado na ang resolusyong magbabawal sa "single-use plastic" sa lahat ng opisina ng pamahalaan. Inutusan na ng DENR sa ilalim ni DENR Secretary Roy A. Cimatu ang National Solid Waste Management Commission (NSWMC) na agad ipatupad ang naturang mandato na nasa ilalim ng Resolution No. 1363 Series of 2020. Para sa katiwalian ng lahat ay nasasakop ng kautusang ito ang lahat ng ahensya ng gobyerno kabilang ang mga Local Government Units (LGUs) at ang lahat ng mga tanggapan na kontrolado ng pamahalaan. Maliwanag sa isinasaad ng resolusyong ito na mahigpit na ipagbabawal ang single use plastic materials tulad ng mga cup na nasa 0.2 millimeter ang kapal, straws, stirrers, spoons, forks, knives, plastic labo at mga sando bags na mas mababa sa 15 microns. Sa totoo lamang ay malaki ang maitutulong ng resolusyong ito para tumulong ang mamamayan upang maisalba at maprotektahan ang ating kalikasan. Ang bawat mamamayan ay dapat ng iwasan o bawasan ang paggamit natin ng plastic sapagkat totoo po na talagang malaking suliranin ang basurang plastic. Ganun pa man marami nang mga bayan at siyudad dito sa bansa ang nagbawal na sa paggamit ng mga plastic na supot o shopping bags pero aminin natin na marami pa rin ang hindi sumusunod. Meron pa ring mga lungsod dito sa Kamaynilaan ang pinababayaang gumamit ng supot na plastics ang mga kilalang mall kaya dahil dito ay walang katapusan ang pagkalat ng basurang plastic sa pamayanan. Sa pangyayaring ito ay tila wala ding epekto ang ginagawa ng ibang lungsod na paghihigpit sapagkat ang katabing bayan o city ay nagpapatuloy sa paggamit ng mga plastic bag.

Popular Myths About Success that Need to Be Ignored

How often has this happened to you? ... You want to do more with your life – get into great shape, pursue a hobby you're passionate about, start your own business, or work toward a new career, etc. You start building a positive habit that will take you in that direction – exercise, waking up early, writing, meditation, an evening routine, studying, etc.

You begin with a lot of determination (for a week maybe). Then something makes you skip your habit for a couple of days: a new project at work, unexpected household events, illness, family coming to visit, and so on.

Those "busy" days keep popping up, and so you skip more often. Before long, you abandon your new habit altogether.

It's frustrating isn't it? Trying again and again to build positive habits, but not being able to? Sometimes you feel that you simply don't have it in you to do anything anymore. You are just too busy, too old, and just plain exhausted.

But what if that's not true? What if the only things holding you back are a few limiting beliefs? And I'm not talking about negative beliefs. We hold numerous beliefs about what works, about the correct way to do things, and about what we need to do to be successful. And on the surface, many of these beliefs sound quite positive and motivational, and they are in some situations. However, in many other situations, they turn into motivational myths that completely cripple our progress and prevent us from building positive habits. Let us discuss these myths:

Myth #1: All you need to do is work really, really hard to be successful. This belief is single-handedly responsible for at least half of all the personal failures people have discussed with me over the years. This might sound ridiculous, but it's true!

After all, everyone agrees that success requires hard work, regardless of whether you want to run a marathon or build a successful business. Simply put, hard work is something you just can't avoid, even if you work smart.

However, you also likely have other job responsibilities, household chores, and family responsibilities. Where do you find the time and energy to work hard on new positive habits every day? For instance, you might be trying to build a habit of exercising for 30 minutes every day. But what about those days when you don't have 30 minutes? You skip, and then you keep on skipping.

The good news is that hard work is NOT the most important element in success, at least not initially, when you are just beginning to build a habit. The only thing that matters initially is to actually do the habit every day for a very short time. Therefore, rather than try to exercise for 30 minutes a day, start with as little as two minutes a day.

You may be wondering – two minutes a day will clearly not help you achieve any results at all, so what's the point? The point is simply to become accustomed to an everyday routine. A habit is something that you do without willpower, something that comes to you naturally. Doing it every day trains a part of your brain – the cingulate gyrus – to engrain this activity and make it as natural as brushing your teeth every morning.

Within a couple of weeks, your brain will get used to the process of doing the activity every day at a specific time or place. That's when you can increase the time by two to five minutes every week. Taking it slow allows you to make gradual adaptations to your everyday routine to accommodate your new habit. Within a few weeks, you will reach your 30-minute target, and it will have become a habit for life that doesn't feel like a burden.

The key: Just remember, hard work is important, but that's the second step toward change. The first step is consistency. Once you become consistent with a small habit, only then should you begin to work harder at it.

Myth #2: You must have a hard deadline, and if you don't hit it you will fail. Are you trying to build new habits to reach certain goals by a set deadline?

Something like, "I have to lose 10 pounds in one month," or, "I have to become a published author within a year." You might believe that you can't get anything done without setting deadlines. But what if I told you that deadlines are actually holding you back in many cases? This happens in two ways:

First, a deadline will draw your attention toward your goal, the result that you seek. You will constantly evaluate how well you did every day by checking your weight or critically judging the quality of your writing. What you haven't taken into account is that during the first few weeks, you might not gain any visible results at all. You might struggle to run even for half a mile or write anything meaningful. That's all part of the natural skill development process that everyone goes through. This lack of visible progress can really discourage you. You might feel that you just don't have what it takes, and you may be motivated to abandon your goal altogether.

Deadlines also cause people to underestimate the amount of time required to get a job done. Look around and you will see this happening in all walks of life. People often miss deadlines at the workplace or end up putting in extra hours at the last minute. If you set deadlines that are not practical, you are building up unrealistic expectations that will soon demotivate you.

It's important to understand that deadlines have a time and a place, but they aren't universally beneficial. For instance, do hard deadlines truly matter for building long-term, life-changing habits? No, they don't. Even if you take 10 years to become a published author or set up your own business, imagine the impact that will have on the rest of your life. What's the big hurry? Take it slow and steady... small, consistent steps forward every day.

The key: Especially during the first few weeks, forget about setting rigid deadlines and just focus on what's important – building the foundation for your positive habit or routine. If you need a better approach to stay motivated, focus on your "big why." Why do you want to build this habit/project/etc.? What rewards will you gain? How will it make you happier and more fulfilled? Write this down, remember it, and let it be your inspiration!

Myth #3: You have to be bigger and better than you are right now. Goals are important. All journeys of change must begin with a goal. You also must have determination in order to achieve those goals. However, what do you think happens when you are too determined? You begin to nurture another belief: who you are right now is not good enough. You have to accept yourself as you are, and then commit to personal growth. If you think you are absolutely "perfect" already, you will not make any positive efforts to grow. But constantly criticizing yourself is just as counterproductive as doing nothing, because you will never be able to build new positive habits when you're obsessively focused on your flaws.

The key: Follow the middle path. Change your mantra from, "I have to be better," to, "I will do my absolute best today." The second mantra is far more effective because it actually prompts you to take positive action every day while simultaneously accepting the reality that every effort may not be perfect. Remember: You already are good enough; you just need more practice.

Myth #4: You must be willing to sacrifice everything to be successful. You've heard this story a million times: successful people work for hours without taking breaks, eating, or sleeping.

Many people try to find more time for their positive habits and projects by skipping breakfast, sleeping less than even six hours, or hardly taking any breaks at work. Such drastic measures are scientifically known to be sure-fire ways of reducing your productivity. They diminish your energy, IQ, decision-making ability, willpower and more. Sooner or later, sacrificing adequate food or sleep will become too troublesome to sustain, and you will end up quitting too soon.

The key: Rather than try to gain time through over-the-top sacrifices, why not spend less time on things that matter less? Spend less time on social media, less time watching TV, or fewer evenings at the pub.

Myth #5: You can (and should) completely transform yourself all at once. Do you have a future image of yourself as a transformed person? Someone who is healthier, happier, more confident, incredibly productive, always able to balance work and life, and so on. Most of us do to a certain extent. Every now and then, we become motivated to do something to become that person. The most common example of this is during New Year celebrations when we make resolutions with a remarkable amount of optimism. Anything seems possible in the New Year! You kick off with tremendous motivation: "Yes, this time, it's going to be different!" But you know how it usually goes. Resolutions just remain... well, resolutions and wishes for some other time.

Your over-enthusiasm is actually the cause of your failure. When you try to build six new habits at a time, or even two, you will become overwhelmed and most likely fail at every habit.

Why? Because making changes requires willpower. Trying

UK eyeing ties with Bacolod

The United Kingdom's (UK) British Embassy sent a three-member delegation to Bacolod City Friday [Feb. 28] to meet with Mayor Evelio Leonardia to learn more about the city's investment climate, tourism, and peace and order situation.

British Embassy Manila First Secretary Iain Cox, who is also the head of their Political and Economic Team, said they would like to have a better understanding of Bacolod as a destination for British nationals and businesses. Senior policy advisor Kurt Cendaña said the meeting is part of the embassy's regular regional trips to gain better understanding of the social and economic developments outside of Metro Manila, as they advance the United Kingdom's bilateral cooperation with the Philippines.

Cox and Cendaña were accompanied by Human Rights officer Kristine Borja. The three embassy officials also discussed their invitation to Bacolodnons to avail of a fully funded scholarship called Chevening. Chevening is the UK government's international awards programme aimed at developing future leaders. It offers two types of awards - master's degree and fellowships.

Joining the mayor in the meeting were City Administrator Em Ang, Supervising and Administrative Officer Federico Guanzon Jr., Acting City Tourism Officer Sandra Ruth Sycip, Acting Public Information Officer Danny Dangelan, LEIPO (Local Economic and Investment Promotions Officer)-designate Jonah Javier, and secretary Edwina Javier. The British Embassy officials had also met with key Negros Occidental provincial officials, and civil society organizations. *CITY PIO to build two new habits at the same time divides your available willpower between those two pursuits, making it more difficult for you to do either of them.

The key: Successful transformation begins with building a single habit, preferably the simplest one first. Don't begin the second habit until you have been consistently doing the first one for at least a month. Let your first victory pave the way for your second.

Closing Thoughts: You may have failed at building positive habits and changes into your life multiple times in the past. That doesn't mean you are too busy, undisciplined, or lazy. You were only harboring some beliefs that were holding you back. Once you free yourself from the deceptive grip of these beliefs, you'll see the difference. It's time to get back into the game. Take the first step today!

it only takes 45 minutes* to change a life.

Dr. Bernie R. Anabo Jr.

President Rodrigo Duterte last Wednesday accepted the apology of the country's leading broadcast company, ABS-CBN after its officials testified before a Senate Panel on issues surrounding the network's franchise renewal.

President Duterte said he was accepting the apology of the TV network but clarified that he would leave the fate of the ABS-CBN franchise to Congress.

During the Senate public services committee hearing on the network's compliance with its franchise, they were sorry if President Duterte was aggrieved over an aired negative political advertisement paid for by his staunch critic Antonio Trillanes IV.

"We were sorry if we offended the President. That was not the intention of the network. We felt that we were just abiding by the laws and regulations that surround the airing of political ads.

The ad, dubbed by Duterte ally Sen Christopher Bong Go Ipatupad ng patas ang pagbabawal sa mga sugal!

Kasi, alam naman natin nasa kasulok-sulukan at liblib na mga lugar sa Barangay ang iba't ibang klase ng sugal at mga itinatagong pasugalan.

Bigyan ang Barangay officials ng kapangyarihan na manghuli at patawan ng kaukulang parusa ang kanilang mga taga-Barangay na lalabag sa batas na ito.

as "black propaganda" featured clips of Duterte using foul language and making offensive gestures with clips of children asking if Duterte was doing the right thing

Duterte said he was leaving the ABS-CBN franchise issue to Congress. "I leave it to Congress... The critical move is in the House and I tell you I am not going to interfere," the President said.

Duterte, who has previously threatened to block the ABS-CBN franchise renewal, however noted that he did not speak to any lawmaker regarding the network's license to operate which expires in May. Duterte however did not give a categorical answer when asked if he would sign into law the bill granting ABS-CBN a fresh 25-year license to operate in the event that the proposal hurdles Congress.

"I will cross the bridge when I get there. Maybe I will call the media to help me out. It would be a difficult decision, really. So I will... I will cross the bridge when I get there," he said.

As to Solicitor General Jose Calida's move to invalidate ABS-CBN's existing franchise via a "quo warranto" petition, Duterte said he cannot do anything about it because the government's top lawyer does not report to him. Calida earlier this month asked the Supreme Court to revoke ABS-CBN's franchise due to alleged "abuses" like pay-per-view (PPV) operation and violation of the constitutional ban against foreign ownership.

The government's top lawyer also sought a gag order panalo sa sugal habang patuloy na nagugumon ang talunan na mga manunugal.

Maraming pamilya ang nawasak dahil sa sugal. Ang mahihirap na nagbasakaling manalo ay lalong nabaon sa kahirapan ng buhay.

Hindi na rin mabilang sa dami ang batang mag-aaral na naputol ang kanilang pag-aaral dahil natutong magbisyo ng sugal. Sandamakmak ang nagdurusang talunan kesa sa nagpipiyesta sa tuwa't galak na nakikinabang sa iligal na mga pasugalan.

May mga insidente rin nagiging ugat ng krimen ang sugal. Nalulon sa masamang bisyo ang sugarol kaya nagnakaw at pumatay.

Sana naman ay maintindihan ng mga kababayan natin ang batas na ito. Makabubuti para sa kapakanan ng marami at hindi sa interes ng iilan lamang!

Harinawa'y hindi "ningas cogon" ang pagpapatupad. Paigtingin ang kampanya. Walang sasantuhin. Sana naman! Good luck sa ating mga Kapulisan! Mabuhay kayo, mga Bossing!

against the network, alleging that ABS-CBN "engaged in propaganda." But Duterte said SolGen works on his own.

"The SolGen does not clear with me unlike the Secretary of Justice. He will call my attention or he will bring it up in the Cabinet. Ang SolGen hindi. He studies and he goes to the public and say, 'There is a violation here. I can't stop that.'" Duterte said.

ABS-CBN in a public statement said Calida's allegations were "without merit" as the organization "complies with all the pertinent laws governing its franchise." House Committee on Legislative Franchises Vice-Chair Antonio Albano said Duterte's acceptance of the apology "is welcome news, because there will be lesser hot heads, and the cooler heads will always prevail."

"President Duterte is known not to be vindictive, especially to those who ask for forgiveness and have a contrite heart," said Albano, whose committee is tasked with hearing bills to grant ABS-CBN Corp a new 25-year franchise.

Meanwhile, Sen. Christopher "Bong" Go urged House lawmakers anew to decide on the renewal of ABS-CBN's franchise with President Duterte's daughter, Mayor Sara Duterte openly supporting the franchise renewal for ABS-CBN.

It seems now the "franchise renewal" is in sight with only one major hurdle to overcome, that is "quo warranto" petition filed by the solicitor general, Jose Calida. so, it's not over til' its over Matatandaan natin noong nakaraang buwan lang ay napabalita na bagsak ang kabuuang koleksyon ng aduana. Ngayong tapos na ang buwan ng Pebrero eh heto na naman bagsak daw uli ang koleksyon at napabalita na kaya ganon nalang ang ginagawa ng commissioner na pati mga empleyado ay kanyang sinasaktan para mapagtakpan ang katotohanan sa ngayari sa loob ng bureau.

Makaraang linggo lamang huwebes at alas tres ng hapon tumawag ang isang taga deliver ko ng dyario para sabihin na pinahuli sya sa customs pulis ng isang tao sa x-ray walang id ang tao na taga x-ray kaya hindi ko mabanggit ang pangalan, kung bakit nakapasok daw yung taga deliver ko ng dyario sa loob ng bureau. Nagulat ang inyong lingkod at kung bakit ano ang ngayari bakit pati mga media ay bawal pumasok sa tanggapan ng gobyerno.

Kaya kinabukasan ako ay dumulog sa bureau para kumpirmahin kung totoo na ba na bawal pumasok at kung ito ay may katotohanan. Pagdating ko sa bureau Friday kasama ko ang dalawang reporter, aming napag alaman na totoo bawal na nga pumasok ang broker at mga outsider kahit na tagahatid lamang ng dyario. Pumunta kami sa pass control para sana kumuha ng permiso para makapasok at makapanayam ang opisyal ng PIAD (Public

SEE THE FLYING CARNIVAL 2020 IN CARMONA, CAVITE

For over two decades, the Philippine International Hot Air Balloon Fiesta, known as "The Weekend of Everything that Flies," has been the most highly anticipated and longest-running sports aviation event in Asia. Over the years, it has stayed true to its longtime objectives: to spark interest in aviation; to instill discipline in young pilots; and to impart a spirit of volunteerism to the whole community.

Continuing to spread this advocacy across the Philippines, the organizers will be launching "The Flying Carnival 2020: A Weekend of Almost Everything that Flies," a 3-day spectacle of hot air balloons, helicopters and air sport events, combined with aviation career seminars, fly markets, food booths and family entertainment! The event will be held at the San Lazaro Leisure Park in Carmona, Cavite on March 6-8, 2020.

Set in a more comfortable viewing space, spectators will be treated to the sight of early morning balloon flights followed by non-stop flying exhibitions – paragliding, skydiving, helicopter demonstrations, RC control line exhibitions and kite flying.

Visitors can wander through a carnival setting, with food booths and entertainment for the whole family. Aviation souvenirs and unique finds can be bought at the Fly Market, and the weekend evenings will be capped off by a magical hot air balloon nightglow and fireworks display.

Those considering a career in aviation can attend the Aviation Career Seminars to be given by renowned aviators and industry practitioners – Fighter pilots from the Philippine Air Force; Naval Air Group pilots from the Philippine Navy; a female captain from Cebu Pacific Air, and Air Traffic Controller from the Air Traffic Service. They will be joined by FAI World Record holder from Spain, Michel Gordillo; Hot Air Balloon pilot from the United Kingdom, Pete Bish; and Capt. Joy Roa of Asian Air Safari. The seminars will be available to Business Class ticket holders. Seminar attendees will be given a certificate of completion, and can enjoy meals and gain admission to the event.

Those who wish to experience the carnival in comfort can opt to get the First Class Ticket, which allows an all-access pass to the event, including meals, private viewing areas, and access to the aviation seminars and air-conditioned bazaar.

The event is co-presented by Okada Manila, the country's ultra luxury integrated resort, and Rewards Circle. Amin itinanong kung bakit hindi sila nagpapapasok ang sagot ay utos daw ng commissioner, pangalawang itinanong ko meroon po bang order o memong inilabas si commissioner? Ang sagot po ay wala verbal lamang po, so bakit pinatutupad? Sino ang may pakana? Hindi na makapagsalita ang mga taong iniharap nila sa amin. Hanggang sa aming napag alaman sa mga tao sa paligid na meroon na palang nasampolan itong si commissioner Jagger, dalawang pulis na si cabral kanyang pinarusahan tatlong pong (30) ikot sa loob ng bureau at kanyang dinibdiban at ang isang pulis na si Gunda ay bumigay hindi kinaya ang parusa ng siga na commissioner.

Bago pa yung dalawang pulis nauna na ang isang driver na ang sabi ng mga tao ay kanyang kenwelyuhan at kinaladkad patungo sa kanyang opisina, sa tingin niyo po ba mga readers tama ba na gawin ng isang matinong commissioner yon? Manakit ng kanyang mga tauhan at mga taong taga labas? Kahit na siguro sabihin ng iba na props lang para mapagtakpan ang bagsak na collection ng bureau hindi pa din tama ang manakit ng kapwa lalo na mga tao mo. Balik tayu sa taga deliver ng dyario at mga media na hindi pinapapasok, First of all Mr. Commissioner Jagger for your information baka lang nakalimutan mo, ang Bureau of Customs ay isang tanggapan ng gobyerno hindi po private agency para yan sa taong bayan hindi niyo po pagmamay ari, wla kayong karapatan at wala sa batas na bawal pumasok sa anumang tanggapan ng gobyerno.
